

2nd Social Science and Humanities Energy Research workshop 15.09.-16.09.2022 in Muntelier

(Best Western SeePark Murten, Muntlierstrasse 25, 3286 Muntelier – Murten)

Program

Thursday	September 15
9:00	Registration & Welcome Coffee
09:30-11:00	Workshop Phase 1
	Coffee Break
11:20-12:00	Yann Blumer: Who and what are we doing research for?
12:00-12:45	Workshop Phase 2
12:45-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-15:30	Workshop Phase 3
	Coffee break
16:00-18:00	Workshop synthesis phase
Starting 19:00	Dinner and informal exchange
Friday	September 16
	Parallel presentations in two rooms
08:30-10:00	Group A: Marlyne Sahakian: Consumption corridors Keith Smith: Can solar energy become polarized? Understanding the role of expressive and negative partisanship in support for solar tax credits Chukwuebuka Edum: Legal Framework for Water-infrastructure in Transboundary Contexts (WATTs) Group B: Mart van der Kam: An agent-based model on co-adoption of renewable energy technologies Fiona Zimmermann: First Visual Prototypes for my PhD Tim Tröndle: People's preferences for renewable electricity supply in their region
	Coffee Break
10:30-11:30	Parallel sessions: Methods Speed Dating (Room A) and Current Swiss Energy Policies and Social Science & Humanities Energy Research (Room B)

	Lunch Break
13:30-16:30	Excursion Bus at 14:08 Murten, Bernstrasse to Düdigen, Staumauer Camping
Ca. 16:30	Goodbye, individual return trip from Düdigen, Staumauer